FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parish Family,

I was so happy when I learned about the ordination of two new bishops in the Cathedral and I had planned to attend it. That is when Fr. Philip Phan told me that he had to leave for Vietnam because one of his family members was on life support. So he left for Vietnam on Feb. 28th and I changed my plan to cover the noon mass in Guardian Angel. I haven't heard from him yet. Please have him and his family in your daily prayers. Then, Fr. Tomas informed me that his older brother was in the hospital dying. I was praying for his brother. But he got the news that his brother passed on Monday, March 7th. Msgr. Walter is able to help as much as he can. Hearing the situation Bishop Edmund Whalen came to help at noon Mass in Guardian Angel. After mass he commented to me that he was pleasantly surprised at the number of young people at tending Guardian Angel. I am fortunate to get the help of Msgr. Kieran Harrington, the Director of National Office of the Propagation of Faith. Please pray for priests and vocations to priesthood in our Archdiocese.

Last Sunday Collection: $2145.00.

Ash Wednesday collection $519.00.

Ukraine donation sent to the Archdiocese: $600.00.

Extraordinary Expenses: Convent Elevator & Guardian Angel Elevator Inspection: $9000.00. St. Columba old School plumbing $1514.39. Monthly payment of old unpaid bills $15,000.00.

Prayers and Blessings, Fr. Pancrose

Guardian Angel School had it's annual Biography Day. On this day our students chose a person they want to learn more about! Not only did they read about their lives, but they came in dressed as the person of their choice!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

2nd Sunday of Lent

There is so much wisdom in the first commandment. The daily demands of life, current political ideologies and dynamics, social expectations, corporate philosophies, and even technology can easily become lesser gods. We can find ourselves beholden to and held captive by these secular constructs and systems. Even for those who profess a faith in the one true God, these lesser, attractive but false gods are a temptation. Being overly preoccupied and even obsessed with the state of our present lives, we lose sight of our real destiny and purpose.

Jesus showed his disciples a glimpse of this destiny when he was transfigured before their eyes. In fact, Peter was so caught up in the brilliance, awe, and sacredness of these fleeting moments that he wanted to extend them as long as possible. Wonderful things happen when we leave our illusions and discover something that is true. This is why creating some sacred space in our lives for reflection, prayer, renewal, refreshment, centering ourselves, and disconnecting from the noise is so important. It shows us how false and shallow our lives can be and what is really of importance. Do you create some kind of sacred space in your life? Lent is a perfect time to do so.

St. Irenaeus, one of the early fathers and martyrs of the Catholic Church, said that, “he who was the Son of God became the Son of Man that man ... might become the son of God.” We mistakenly believe that life is all about us. It’s not. Ours is a journey of transformation in which we become more and more one with the mind of Christ and Christ himself. St. Augustine saw this same transformation occurring when the Eucharist is received. In receiving the Eucharist, we become what we eat, the Body of Christ. Honestly acknowledging false gods that we cling to can open the door for God to show us the wholeness and holiness to which we are called. Take time to discover the sacred. When we do, we will want to stay there for a while. Then, when we return to our personal affairs, we will see more clearly.

LUCAS 9. 35

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

2^o Domingo de la Cuaresma

“El Señor es mi luz y mi salvación, ¿a quién he de temer? Amparo de mi vida es el Señor, ¿ante quien temblaré? (Salmo 26,1).

Junto a Dios no se debe de tener temor. Hemos visto como la pandemia destrozó vidas, y aun vivimos las secuelas de esta experiencia mundial. Dejó a muchas personas sin hogar y sin trabajo, sin techo ni comida. Sin embargo, en medio de todas las luchas de la presente vida, la persona no se desanima, porque grande es su esperanza que le reserva el Señor al final de su combate en la vida. ¡Dios siempre ha estado con nosotros, su compasión no tiene medida!

La Transfiguración de Jesús sitúa hacia donde será el final de este camino. La Liturgia de este segundo domingo de Cuaresma, indica también lo que será la gran celebración de la Pascua.

“Maestro, ¿qué bueno que estemos aquí! Levantemos tres chozas: una para ti, otra para Moisés y otra para Elías. Pero no sabía lo que decía (Lucas 9,33). Pedro, sin saber lo que decía, propone a Jesús detener ese momento de gloria para siempre, construyendo tres chozas, una para Jesús y otras dos para sus acompañantes. ¿Qué choza construiremos a Jesús en esta Cuaresma? ¿Cuál es la esperanza que mueve a vivir la vida con esperanza? San Juan, en su Evangelio, indica la cercanía y unidad entre Jesús y su Padre. “Ahora, Padre, dame junto a ti la misma Gloria que tenía a tu lado antes que comenzara el mundo (Juan 17,5). ¡Escuchemos a Jesús, que es el amado del Padre! Durante la semana, busque a propósito un tiempo de oración para tener unidad con Dios Padre, Dios Hijo y Dios Espíritu Santo.

Lecturas del Domingo: Gn 15, 5-12. 17-18/Sal 26, 1. 7-8. 8-9. 13-14/Flp 3, 17-4, 1 /Lc 9, 28-36
